2022-2023 Keys to Quality Workforce Training Pathways

Registration for each training series is open to the community, as described below. Registration information will be available utilizing the CA ECE Workforce Registry. Providers enrolled in the Keys to Quality Workforce Pathways Stipend Program and who are receiving a stipend for professional development will be required to complete one training series in addition to other program requirements. Applications for the Yuba/Sutter/Colusa Keys to Quality Workforce Stipend Program are available on the CA ECE Workforce Registry after logging into the participant's account and selecting: Stipends & Pathways; Application; Yuba/Sutter/Colusa – Keys to Quality Stipend Program.

Stipend Program Orientation Workshops

These are mandatory workshops for all stipend program participants. Please register for one workshop if you are applying to participate in the Keys to Quality Stipend Program. Program requirements, coaching sessions, and participant/program goals will be covered during these workshops. You still need to sign up for a workshop even if you have participated in the program before.

Trauma Responsive Caregiving Series: Module 100 & 200

The Trauma Responsive and Resilience Building training series is designed to support early childhood educators and providers serving children ages 3 through 8 years old. The training is designed to support the early childhood workforce to be trauma informed and equipped with the concrete skills and knowledge to create nurturing, responsive and healing engaged programs for children who have been impacted by trauma and traumatic stress. This training series will support ECE providers working in a range of settings and environments with young children and for individuals working in infrastructure organizations on behalf of young children. The second training date will create an opportunity to practically apply the trauma-responsive and resilience building practices, taking a deeper dive into the trauma responsive strategies by providing an opportunity for educators to practice using the strategies through interactive activities and reflective conversations sharing implementation practices. The following key practices will be discussed: Attuned, Responsive and Nurturing Relationships; Safe and Predictable Environments; Strengthening Body Awareness and Sensory Literacy that Lead to Emotional Literacy; Building Self-Regulation and Resilience Strategies to Manage Big Emotions.

Virtual meeting dates: April 22/May 6 – 8:30am – 3:30pm (hour lunch)
